

A man wearing an orange and white hard hat, safety glasses, and a dark blue t-shirt stands in a factory setting with his arms crossed. He is smiling at the camera. The background shows industrial equipment and a large warehouse structure.

Partner with DSHS to help persons with disabilities gain employment.

Washington State Department of Social and Health Services
Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Rehabilitation Administration

What are Community Rehabilitation Programs?

These programs contract with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) to provide services to DVR clients that will help them seek and maintain employment.

How can I participate?

Potential contractors must complete a request for qualifications (RFQ), which indicates requirements potential contractors must meet. DVR has training opportunities for potential new contractors, and core training for those selected.

How do I get started?

More information on the program may be found at <https://www.dshs.wa.gov/ra/division-vocational-rehabilitation/community-rehabilitation-programs-contracts>

The application packet is available at www.dshs.wa.gov/sites/default/files/JJRA/dvr/pdf/CRP/Open_Enrollment_2015_CRP.pdf

For more information, please email dvrcontractsunit2@dshs.wa.gov or call (360) 725-3652